Prior Meeting Minutes

- Reviewed and approved minutes from April 2025

President Update

- Boosters is closed on the last day of school

Treasurer Report

- After Prom and teacher appreciation week went well.
- Consider putting StuCo under the school instead of Boosters
- Need to put popcorn machine into budget for next year

Committee Updates

School Clubs & StuCo:

- Had lots of parents at After Prom
- StuCo is done.
- Jaguar Warrior night tonight
- Legally Blonde theater this week

- Graduation is May 22 at School of Mines
- Marti works through mid-June and back in July 23
- New Principal begins July 1
- They had 9 applicants for the scholarship

Concessions:

- Concessions closed
- May sell what's left on the last days of school
- Idea to go to individual sports next year and tell them they each have assigned weeks to run the concession stand. Used to require all clubs to run it once. Lucy has some parents offering to help coordinate that.
- May need a new popcorn machine next year
- May need more electricity (facilities) at concession

Hospitality:

- Teacher appreciation week done

New Business

- Andrea and Sarah are moving website over to jajags.com

Election & Volunteers

- President
  - Andrea Nygren moved to elect Heather Redabaugh as president for a 2-year term and Marti Porreco seconded. Passed unanimously.
- Treasurer
  - Andrea Nygren moved to elect Tanya Mooney as treasurer for a 2-year term and Kristin Lee seconded. Passed unanimously.
  - Nicole reminded that Boosters just holds money for the clubs and sports but only has its own funds from membership dues.
  - Nicole explained that we could change the filing to the academic year instead of the calendar year.
- Lucy Zugschwert is still Vice President and Sarah Cook is still Secretary
- Nicole Krout nominated Ashleigh Kim to head up a membership drive in and Sarah seconded. Passed unanimously.

Adjournment

- Meeting adjourned by Nicole at 6:31pm.

Respectfully submitted by Sarah Cook, Secretary
